Tough, Transparent BodyGuardz Now the Perfect Protection for Apple MacBook Computers

NLU Products' Scratch-Proof, Transparent Skins Now Available for Apple MacBook, Pro, an Mini

DRAPER, UT – August 29, 2007 – NLU Products, the developer of scratch-proof, transparent skins for mobile devices under the ScreenGuardz and BodyGuardz brand names, today announced the release of a new line of BodyGuardz products for the Apple MacBook line of notebook computers. The MacBook BodyGuardz protector, which is custom-designed and precision-cut specifically for a number of popular MacBook models, is made of a clear film that covers the body of the computer, providing scratch protection from outside elements.

“The Apple MacBook continues to be popular with both professional and personal users alike,” said Dain Hodson, Vice President of NLU Products. “Our BodyGuardz protect these distinctive products so users can get the most out of their computers for a long time to come.”

The BodyGuardz MacBook line includes protectors for the MacBook 13”, MacBook Pro 15”, MacBook Pro 17” and Mac Mini models. BodyGuardz protectors are made from the same material that is used to protect the front of automobiles from stones and other abrasive elements. The protectors are easy to apply and are optically clear; the protection remains transparent without distorting the MacBook’s dimension or design. Each BodyGuardz for MacBook package includes a complete BodyGuardz full body wrap which protects the entire outside of the computer case including top and bottom, as well as protectors for the MacBook’s wrist rest and trackpad.

NLU Products, also the developers of popular ScreenGuardz screen protectors, creates custom ScreenGuardz protectors for over 1,000 different varieties and brands of phones, PDAs, computers, media players, gaming devices, and cameras. Current top-selling BodyGuardz include protectors for iPod Nano 2G and 5G models, BodyGuardz for the Apple iPhone, and the Cingular 8525.

BodyGuardz adhere using an adhesive that holds the protector in place, but can be removed when needed. BodyGuardz will not come off unless the user pulls them off. Included in each package are step-by-step instructions on how to install the protector, and how-to videos are available on the BodyGuardz website to assist users with installation.

BodyGuardz protectors for the MacBook 13", MacBook Pro 15", MacBook Pro 17" are priced at $49.95, and protectors for the MacBook Mini are priced at $9.95. MacBook BodyGuardz usually ship in 24 hours. MacBook BodyGuardz, as well as all other BodyGuardz products, can be purchased at www.bodyguardz.com.
